

Defer, Suspend or Cancel Enrolment Policy and Procedure

1. Policy

- 1.1 This policy and procedure applies to international students studying at Gippsland Institute of Technology. Gippsland Institute of Technology defers, suspends or cancels an international student's enrolment in limited exceptional circumstances as identified in this policy and procedure.
- 1.2 Gippsland Institute of Technology provides information to international students on the grounds and process for deferring, suspending and cancelling enrolment pre and post enrolment.
- 1.3 Gippsland Institute of Technology informs international students of the impact of deferring, suspending or cancelling their enrolment and their student visa.
- 1.4 If due to exceptional circumstances identified in item 1.5 of this policy and procedure Gippsland Institute of Technology amends an international student's enrolment it will do so via PRISMS and record the reasons for the amendment.
- 1.5 Gippsland Institute of Technology defers, suspends or cancels a student's enrolment in the following exceptional circumstances:

Compassionate or compelling circumstances that are generally beyond the control of the student, and which have an impact upon their course progress, attendance at classes or wellbeing. These could include, but are not limited to:

- serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to start a course or attend classes or remain studying a course
- bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents
- major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel when this has impacted on the student's studies; or
- a traumatic experience which could include:
 - involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident
 - witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime.
 - where Gippsland Institute of Technology was unable to offer a pre-requisite unit
 - inability to begin studying on the course commencement date due to delay in receiving a student visa
- issues with travel from the student's country of origin that prevents them from starting a course on the scheduled date
- academic or personal/ welfare issues that impact a student's ability to attend classes or remain studying a course
- If an approved deferral of commencement of studies or the suspension of study has been approved in compliance with Gippsland Institute of Technology Defer, suspend or cancel enrolment policy and procedure

The above circumstances are only some of examples of what may be considered compassionate or compelling circumstances. The CEO will use his/ her professional judgment to assess each case on its individual merits.

When determining whether compassionate or compelling circumstances exist, Gippsland Institute of Technology considers documentary evidence provided to support the claim, and stores copies of these documents in the student's file.

Other circumstances that may lead to a deferral, suspension or cancellation of a student's enrolment may be:

Student initiated:

- Gippsland Institute of Technology is unable to provide or continue to provide the course a course in which the student is enrolled
- The student's current course of study is clearly inconsistent with documented course requested for in your Enrolment application
- Gippsland Institute of Technology has breached the terms of the Written agreement and this breach has led to the deferral, suspension, or cancellation request
- If a student was provided inaccurate or incomplete information by Gippsland Institute of Technology or a Gippsland Institute of Technology approved Education Agent prior to enrolling in the course.
- The student wishes to cancel their enrolment in accordance with the student transfer policy and procedure.
- The student is experiencing academic issues that impact your ability to attend classes and/ or study at present and/ or remain studying the course in which you are enrolled

Institute initiated:

- The student has failed to pay Gippsland Institute of Technology any course related fees by the due date.
- The student has failed to achieve satisfactory course progress
- The student has cheated, plagiarised, or engaged in unauthorised collusion during assessments
- The student has breached the Gippsland Institute of Technology Code of Conduct

- 1.6 Students have the right to appeal a decision by Gippsland Institute of Technology to defer, suspend or cancel their studies within 22 working days of the date on letter informing them of Gippsland Institute of Technology's intention.
- 1.7 Gippsland Institute of Technology does not notify Department of Home Affairs/ Department of Education via PRISMS of a change to the enrolment status until the external complaints and appeals process is completed (if accessed). Cancellation of enrolment for misbehaviour may lead to enrolments being cancelled after the outcome of the internal appeals process.
- 1.8 Reasons for deferment, suspension or cancelation of their course are recorded in the student's file.
- 1.9 Students must submit verifiable documentary evidence when applying to defer, suspend or cancel their enrolment.
- 1.10 The CEO is responsible for the implementation of this policy and procedure.
- 1.11 This policy will be implemented in compliance with the requirements of the National Code of Practice 2018 Standard 9.
